

MAMMOTH TUNNEL PROJECT THROUGH SENATOR MOUNTAIN

Apparently Well Grounded Rumor That
Phelps Dodge and Company Contemplate
Such an Enterprise---Work to Commence Soon.

The Journal-Miner has been informed on what is apparently reliable authority that work of great importance to this section will shortly be inaugurated by the Commercial Mining company, which is an organization of Phelps Dodge & Co.

The above company has for some time been quietly buying up mining properties in the vicinity of the Senator mine, but has been making no outward display of the matter. In fact so quietly has this absorption of mining property by them been made that but few people have known of it, and the impression has been obtained that the company had practically withdrawn from this section rather than that they were planning more extensive operations which seems to be the case.

The information given the Journal-Miner is that J. S. Douglas will arrive here shortly and commence work extending the Senator tunnel, the plan being to drive it clear through the mountain and cut a number of well known ledges, which exist there at great depth.

The tunnel was originally run to tap the Senator vein, and just what was encountered in it has never been given out to the public, as the company which run the tunnel is a close corporation.

Hints were given out however at various times that important developments had been made in the tunnel, but nothing definite was obtainable further than that a considerable amount of ore was taken out through it.

The project of a tunnel through Senator mountain is by no means a new one, as the question has been agitated from time to time for years and has been pronounced by mining men who have examined it as not only feasible but practical with a reasonable prospect of encountering large bodies of ore. That this will be done sooner or later there is very little doubt, and should the information that Mr. Douglas will shortly commence operations on it prove correct, it means that it will be speedily accomplished as the company of which he is the representative has unlimited resources, and has made millions of dollars out of Arizona's mines. They have also shown a disposition to take a reasonable chance in developing new properties where the indications for success are promising.

Not only would the inauguration of this enterprise give employment to a large number of men but its consummation would prove the means of affording facilities for the economical working of a large number of properties in that section, which make a good surface showing.

SANTA FE HEADED FOR SAN DIEGO

Arizona and California Branch Will

Be Used As Connecting Link in

A recent issue of the Topeka Kansas State Journal has the following to say of railroad construction which is now in progress in Arizona, but the true import of it has never been given out here:

"The state Journal is in a position to present the news today that for several months the Santa Fe interests have been quietly at work on the construction of a roadbed from Wickenburg, Arizona, to a point west of the Colorado river, which will probably be Ehrenberg.

"It has been given out semi-officially several times that as soon as the roadway is built to the Colorado river it will be continued south to Yuma, and from there to San Diego, traversing in its course one of the greatest undeveloped sections of the southwest. Three hundred men and two hundred teams are now throwing up this roadbed as fast as they can, contracts recently being let to the Grant Brothers' Construction company of Los Angeles for forty miles of the bed.

"Already the Santa Fe has built forty miles of the grade west of Wickenburg, and the forty miles under contract will almost take the road to the Colorado. It is said that as soon as the Grant Brothers complete their work another contract will be let that will take the road to the banks of the Colorado.

"The new road is known as the Arizona and California line, and for nearly two years surveying parties have been in the field selecting the most feasible route from Wickenburg to San Diego. Those in authority have avoided publicity whenever possible.

"Frank M. Murphy, president of the Santa Fe branch from Ash Fork to Phoenix, is at the present time in Washington, D. C., where he is assisting the fight against the joint statehood bill.

"President Murphy states that the Arizona and California line is part of a new transcontinental system, which will connect with the Santa Fe line at Deming, New Mexico, and continue westward in southern Arizona to Phoenix, Wickenburg, and then on to Yuma and San Diego."

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—At a meeting of the Postal Progress league at Cooper Union hall tonight, Chairman Post of Battle Creek, Mich., said he had prepared papers and would ask the supreme court of the United States for a restraining order to prevent Senator Thomas C. He said he would take this action on the ground that Platt subverts the interest of the people he has sworn to represent in the interests of a corporation he really represents. Oklahoma is Vicious for the Passage—Prominent Men for and Against the Hamilton Hoodo Bill.

WASHINGTON, January 13.—Fifty delegates from Oklahoma and Indian Territory are storming the senatorial committee rooms this afternoon demanding the passage of the Hamilton joint statehood bill with its main provisions as applying to Oklahoma and the Indian Territory. Senator Cullom, of Illinois, now says that the bill will surely pass. Senator Beveridge of Indiana, who is leading the fight for the bill's passage states that the bill will unquestionably pass. Delegate-elect W. H. Andrews of New Mexico is the only representative of that territory here to fight the bill. He is working heroically to prevent today's stampede of the senatorial committee rooms from effecting the passage of the bill. N. Oakes Murphy, former governor and ex delegate of Arizona, and Delegate J. Francis Wilson and Delegate elect Marcus A. Smith, of Arizona, insist if the bill is passed that Arizona be eliminated from any part in it, saying that the people of Arizona prefer to remain a territory if need be forever rather than be merged with New Mexico into the proposed joint state of Arizona. Numerous amendments have been offered to the Hamilton bill as it now stands. Senator Gorman of Maryland is now leading the opposition to the bill and has asked time to examine it.

The president has been taking especial interest in the statehood bill for the past day or two for the reason there have been statements to the effect that the republican majority of the committee know and knew that the people of Arizona were utterly opposed to the bill. Something of a fog has been raised over the allegations and the president has some strong opinions on the subject.

There seems to be a well defined plan on the part of the opposition to keep the discussion hot until some of the appropriation bills for the food bill demand action and then to have the statehood bill indefinitely sidetracked. There are those who think in view of the strenuous protests to jointure from many sources that it is not improbable that Oklahoma and Indian Territory will be admitted as one state and that New Mexico and Arizona will be allowed to remain for the present session as they are.

ENTERTAIN FORESTERS

Supervisor F. R. Stewart's visit to Washington, to attend the American Forest congress enabled him to get a glimpse of Washington society. Gifford Pinchot is at the head of the United States forest reserves. He is a wealthy man in his own right besides being the son of wealthy parents and occupies the position he does because he loves the work. The salary of $3,600 per year, which he receives does not amount to more than about one third of his living expenses and he took occasion during the session of the forest congress to give a very elaborate reception which was attended by the delegates to the congress and a large number of residents of Washington, the following account of which appeared in the Washington Times:

"Mr. and Mrs. James Pinchot, and Gifford Pinchot, their son, the United States forester, received 400 or 500 guests last night in honor of the American Forest Congress now in session here. The Marine band furnished music, and refreshments were served. Assisting Mrs. Pinchot in receiving were Miss Morgan, of New York; Secretary Wilson, Mrs. Taft, Mrs. Hitchcock, Mrs. Chaffee, Mrs. Cowles, Mrs. Arnold Hague, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, Mrs. Walcott, Miss Boardman, Mrs. Samuel Spencer, Mrs. J. B. Henderson, Miss Grace Biglow, who is the guest of Mrs. Hobson; Mrs. Eno and Miss Morgan.

"Mrs. Pinchot wore a beautiful gown of white satin with embroidered panels of light gray velvet."

The Swayne Inquiry Lags in Interest—New Pension Man—Senate Passes Bills.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Three witnesses for the defense in the Smoot case today testified that polygamy was dying out in Utah so rapidly that there was no need of prosecutions. It was declared the younger Mormons are all opposed to polygamy and that if they thought it was taught there would be a revolution in the church. It was admitted that Smoot got the consent of the church to become a candidate for senator but only in the form of a leave of absence from his church duties, and it was declared that he could have been nominated and elected without it.

As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. Culmination of a Bitter Fight Among
The Stockmen, and a new Organization Takes Place.

By Associated Press.

DENVER, Jan. 13.—The National live stock association was reat in twain today by the adoption of a new constitution which admitted the packers to membership and provided an opening through which the railroads of the country might at any time become factors in the control of the organization. The cattlemen, horse and swine growers, together with some of the affiliated industries refused to agree to the new constitution, and withdrew when they considered its adoption as probable, and this afternoon they formed a new organization under the name of the American Stock Growers association, whose aim it will be to wield a dominating influence in the interest of the cattle growers. Roughly speaking the sheep growers commission men and the stockyards interests remained with the association and the actual growers of all other animals for the market have gone with the new association. The new organization elected John W. Springer, the former president of the national live stock association, as president and decided to hold a convention on May 2d for the election of officers to serve for one year.

At a meeting of the National live stock association held tonight the central committee which is the governing body, was announced. The committee reelected Frank J. Hagenbarth as president and passed a resolution thanking him for his work and expressing confidence in him as an official. The other officers will be chosen tomorrow.

WHAT THE GRAFT COST RUSSIA

The Greed of Money Among the Russian Leads to the Down Fall of Port Arthur, so Say Press
Correspondents at the Front.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—A correspondent of the Times at Port Arthur says: "The total number of soldiers, seamen and civilians in Port Arthur at the beginning of the siege was fifty five thousand. There are no signs of the privation reported. There was food sufficient for two months ahead and the surrender of the Russian garrison is inexplicable." The Daily Mail's Tokio correspondent gives a story to the effect that all money in Port Arthur was divided among the Russian officers and after this was discovered a bitter feeling arose in the army and navy, which feeling was largely responsible for the fall of the fortress. Reports from St. Petersburg practically confirm this statement that is being generally discussed throughout private press channels as coming originally from the front. Many officers of the Russian forces anticipating an expose have accordingly refused to sign the parole list preferring under the conditions above given, to leave their country for a time and remain
